

I support the petition to require VRS interoperability because the consumers would be able to call one another through videophone without having to resort to specific avenues to achieve that.